from Textual Controversy: Mischievous Angels or Sethites? by Chuck Missler. Why did God send the judgment of the Flood in the days of Noah? Far more than simply a historical issue, the unique events leading to the Flood are a prerequisite to understanding the prophetic implications of our Lord's predictions regarding His Second Coming.

The genres of still life and domestic interiors have sometimes been perceived as women's artistic province, such as in the work of female painters Mary Cassatt and Berthe Morisot, although they have also been explored by a number of male artists, including Cezanne, Bonnard, Chardin and others. Paintings of mothers and children are also often associated with women artists.
