Outstanding Year 1 Maths Lesson

An outstanding lesson is not achieved the children 'fly through' the work without mistakes or challenge. During Maths in year 1 we made challenge boxes so that the children could choose from more than 1 activity.

I'm trying to return to teaching after a 4 year break, most of my experience is in early years teaching but I have applied for a part-time Year 1 teaching post and -by-some-miracle- been invited for an interview -eek! I have to do a 15 minute input, in any subject area, with current reception class.

Year 1 Numeracy - Fractions of shape. The focus of this session is on halves and quarters and how to write these fractions. The lesson starts with a picnic where children share out food, then moves into the classroom to discuss what fractions look like. This is followed by a carousel of activities, including recording of fractions,...

Teaching the ideal Ofsted lesson can no longer be blagged like last minute homework. While I was working with staff at a special school on 'The Outstanding Teaching Performance', a teacher reflected that the first five minutes of her lessons had been the same for the last 15 years: get them in, take the register, do the starter and ...
