The Stage Or The Pulpit

If it was true for Josiah that spiritual rebirth occurred only by returning to the old landmark, then possibly our resurrection as a denomination in places where we are currently experiencing drought and stagnation, is just as simple: tear down the stage and put back the pulpit! In the pulpit and the altar, God is central, God writes the script, God gives the direction, and God plays the tune. In the pulpit and the altar, the power is not in fund raising via chicken dinners and fish fries ...

The Stage or the Pulpit (Part 1)

Beginning in 1517 and the Protestant Reformation, the church renewed its emphasis on scripture, the spoken word, and the sermon. In doing so, the pulpit was relocated, this time to a place of prominence at the center of the platform to symbolize the centrality of the spoken word.

What's the Purpose of the Pulpit? - HCNA

Pulpit is a raised stand for preachers in a Christian church. The origin of the word is the Latin pulpitum (platform or staging). The traditional pulpit is raised well above the surrounding floor for audibility and visibility, accessed by steps, with sides coming to about waist height.

Pulpit - Wikipedia

A Pulpit Is Not A Platform. Unlike the stage or platform, the pulpit is a single-use piece of furniture. It is designed to facilitate the preaching of the Word. In architectural terms, a true pulpit is not just a lectern placed on a stage. It is at the top of a short flight of stairs. It has a door. The pulpit is a box.
